

Does Practice Always Exceed Theory

“(Does) Practice Always Exceed Theory?” at the Faculty of Arts and Sciences Conference Hall on 12.11.2024. A presentation titled: Our department faculty member Dr. Lecturer Member Melih YÜRUSEN, in his speech where he evaluated the differences between a theorized political value pattern and political practice itself, shared his opinions on whether it was successful in reflecting or transferring the principles contained in the ideologies and doctrines, which are theorized value patterns, into practice. Question and answer session and our Vice Dean Prof. Dr. The program ended after Ayhan ERCİYES presented a certificate of appreciation. Thanks to our teacher Dr. for his valuable presentations. Lecturer We would like to thank member Melih YÜRUSEN and all faculty members and students for their participation in the program.

